Seeing Jesus for Who He Is

Getting to Know You:

- Why does our world think Jesus and His Kingdom are foolish? Think especially of our society now. Read 1 Corinthians 1:18-25.

o What are some of the temptations we Christians will face while following Jesus and belonging to His 'upside-down' kingdom? Think of your life and experience in following Jesus, and the lives of other believers you know.

o On the other hand, which "foolish" things have blessed your life, that you are grateful you have received in Christ?

our lives? In your life?

Repenting and Stomping

Getting to Know You:

Share with the group a time when you experienced a moment of clarity where you understood the consequences of your sin and wrongdoing. How did that moment impact you?

Going Deeper:

What is 'repentance'? How and why is it different from remorse, just feeling bad and regretting your sin? Consider the towns and people Jesus lists in Luke 10:13-15. They had received His ministry, yet had not repented. According to the second half of verse 13, grief plays an important role in repentance. Why is this? Read 2 Corinthians 7:8-10 and discuss.

As followers of Jesus, we are tempted to downplay the severity of rejecting Jesus and refusing to repent. Why do we do this? Read 1 Peter 3:13-16 – discuss what it looks like to faithfully share what is true, yet in the manner described in verse 16.

Read Luke 10:17-20. According to Jesus, and according to the 72, how far does our authority in Christ extend? And according to verse 20, what is the danger that every believer in Jesus should be aware of as they serve Jesus in the power of His authority?

Read 2 Timothy 1:7-9. According to this passage, what is the truth that overcomes our fear and lack of confidence? This certainly applies to sharing our faith like the 72 did – what are some fears you struggle with today, and how does this truth help you overcome them?

Taking it Home:

This week, pray for an opportunity to share the Gospel with a loved one who has yet to repent. Seek to be obedient to Christ and trust God to work through His power in their life.

Choosing a Satisfied Life

Getting to Know You:

Share your High (best part) and Low (worst part) of this past week with the group.

Going Deeper:

As humans, we are body, soul and spirit – which of these areas of your life would you say is the healthiest right now? Which one is not as healthy as the others?

Read Psalm 1:1-3 – these verses give us some principles that guide us towards being satisfied in our body, soul and spirit.

- Verse 1 – Set healthy boundaries. This can apply to relationships, habits, work, rest, any and every area of our lives. What are some healthy boundaries that you currently have that you are thankful for? What are some things you may need to remove from your life, areas where you have yet to set boundaries?

- Verse 2a – Delight in the right things. What is one thing you take pleasure in that is good and healthy? What is one thing you enjoy that you may need to get rid of? Read Philippians 4:8-9 for guidelines on what is right and good.
- Verse 2b – Protect your mind. Read Colossians 3:1-3. Allan stated that we act in negative ways because our thought processes are not right. According to this passage, how do we change our minds?
- Verse 3 – Plant yourself for nourishment. Allan pointed out that many of our struggles are not from poor mental health, but from negative things we allow into our hearts and minds that decay us. What negative influence have you allowed into your life in the past, and how did your life change for the better when you removed it?

Read Psalm 1:4-6. According to this passage, what benefits will we experience for applying the 'principles of the satisfied life' from verses 1-3?

Taking it Home: This week, read and meditate on Philippians 4:4-9. Choose to repent of and remove things that are unhealthy, and add things that lead to the promised satisfied life.

Going Deeper:

Read Acts 20:35.

- Discuss the different 'financial worldviews' you see around you – yours, your friends', your co-worker's, etc.

Read Exodus 25:2,8, 36:3-7; 1 Chronicles 29:3,6,9,11-12.

- Have you ever been bitten by the generosity bug, maybe even surprised yourself at how much you gave? Share how that felt. What power does generosity have in our lives, and how does it impact us?
- Look again at 1 Chronicles 29:11-12. How is generosity a form of worship? Like other forms of worship, it is not limited to just Sunday mornings at church but is meant to be how we live each day. - What are the promises we are given in this passage?
- Look again at verse 7. Name some of the ways you feel compelled to give. What is the genuine need that is present in each of those situations? Perhaps you won't give in that situation (and there is nothing wrong with that), but if you do, what steps can you take to make sure that you give in a spirit of generosity?

Taking it Home:

Ask God to put an opportunity in your path this week to give financially that is above and beyond how you currently give. Trust Him and give cheerfully!
