

Pluck Out Your Eye and Cut Off Your Hand

Getting to Know You:

- What's one thing about you that if you could change you would change?

Going Deeper:

- Look up the “you have heard it said, but I say to you” statements of Jesus in Matt. 5:21-48.

o Why is Jesus so concerned to correct these sayings?

o Which one stood out to you as the most serious?

o Which one do you need to work on the most?

- How do we know that Jesus is using hyperbole in vs.28-30 about plucking out eyes and cutting off hands?

o Why is Jesus commanding his followers take such drastic measures?

- Look up the following verses about lust/adultery and discuss God's opinion on both. 1 Cor. 6:18-20, 2 Tim. 2:22, 1 Thess. 4:3-5, Psalm 119:9-11, Col. 3:5, Heb. 13:4

- According to these verses, what's the only way to be remarried and not commit adultery? Matt. 5:31-32, Lk. 16:18, Matt. 19:9, 1 Cor. 7:10-11, 15-16, 36-40

- According to 1 Cor.7:1-5 what's a good way for a married couple to avoid lust/temptation?

Taking it Home:

- Review the 8 ways to wage war on lust that PK spoke about on Sunday. Choose one and implement that this week. Start gouging and cutting!
